OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave!
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 13, 1861

NATIONAL SALUTE.

On yesterday, at 1 P. M., a National Salute was fired by the Union men of Portland for the Great Union Victory in California at the recent election.

The results of that election should settle the question of Disunion on the Pacific coast.

California Election—What it Teaches.

There is no room for a reasonable doubt that Leland Stanford is elected Governor of California, and that the entire Republican State ticket is successful. Mr Stanford's election appears to be an act of political justice. In 1857, he was the Republican candidate for Treasurer of State, and received the full Republican vote—about 18,000. In 1859, he was the Republican candidate for Governor, and was sacrificed for the benefit of John Curry, the Douglas candidate for the same office—Mr. Stanford receiving about 10,000 votes. It would appear from this as if Mr. Stanford had a claim on the generosity of the Douglas men at this election, and he did on the rank and file, and they have paid it; but the leading Douglas politicians did not acknowledge it, as they asked him to stand aside at this election for Mr. Conness' benefit.

This claim of Mr Conness' friends might have received the consideration of the Republicans, had they met them in a spirit of compromise or liberality. Last May, the Marysville Appeal, speaking the true sentiments of the Republicans of California, offered to meet the Douglas men on the broad platform of a Union party movement. It was well known that they were even anxious to see Mr McKibben elected to Congress, he being known as a true Union man, and the colleague of Col Baker, in the election of 1859, on the Congressional ticket. But the Douglas politicians—confident in their strength—determined to run a Union Democratic ticket, and asked the 40,000 Republicans who voted for Mr Lincoln, to cast aside their organization and adopt their candidates—but at the same time offering them a hearing in their Convention as Union men. Of course, this was an inadmissible proposition, as it involved the abandonment of the organization of the stronger party, where there were no corresponding concessions on the other side. It must be recollected, in addition, that the Republicans had loyally and generously supported, and assisted in electing, Gen. McDougall to the United States Senate, when neither he nor his party had any claim on them but the feeling of accord on the Union question, and a devotion to what we call the "Free State Sentiment," or the abstract preference of the institutions of the Free States to those of the Slave States.

It is seen from these facts that the Republicans had constantly conceded something to the Douglas men—not from any sympathy felt by them for the Douglas leaders, but from the natural inclination to fusion between the rank and file of the two parties. The principle impelling cause of this tendency to fusion, was an intense disgust at the corruption of the then dominant and domineering pro-slavery element—of a colony of pro slavery political sharpers, who were the pets of the late Administration, and the ruling and tyrannical power in the State. From an example of Dixie rule thus prominent, both parties gained an insight into what it would be if extended over the entire country.

But the friends of Mr. Conness did not recognize the existence of this community of sentiment between the Union men, and presumed on the strength of party ties to hold the Douglas men up to their work. The upshot has shown that the Douglas men have gravitated towards the Republicans in numbers to secure for them a brilliant victory; the rank and file have formed new associations; they have broken loose from party trammell.

We then have as a lesson: That while leaders of parties may differ, and strive to grasp at station and spoils, that the voters in stinctively seek that organization which proposes to carry out the aims nearest their hearts.

In this State, the Douglas men and Republicans have both had a sufficient taste of the Dixie element in political affairs. Their true policy in the future is as clear as the noon day sun. And we repeat the opinion we have presented many times to our readers—that Patriotism is at this time stronger with our Union-loving citizens than Party, that Party leaders may plan for their own aggrandizement as much as they please when the Freemen come to the polls they will vote, as their judgment directs, for the strongest candidate in nomination against those Secession candidates, who, if successful, will break down the Government.

We add a prediction—that in those States East or West, where either of the Union parties refuse to unite with the other against the common enemy, that party, be it which it may, will be certain to be in the minority.

Take Warning!

The Mountaineer of the 11th, makes the following statement:

"Within the last month we have heard of several instances in which commands have been tendered to parties living in the vicinity of the Dalles, and in each instance the parties thus addressed have been informed that if they prefer it, commands will be assigned them on the Pacific coast. The latest case of this kind is that of P. A. Mauldin, Esq., a very worthy gentleman, residing on the opposite side of the river. It appears that a few months back, a relative of Mr Mauldin, living in one of the Southern States, died, leaving him an estate valued at many thousand dollars. The Secretary of War of the Confederate States writes to Mr. Mauldin apprising him of this fact, and further informing him that he can succeed to the estate only on the condition of signifying his acceptance of a commission in the Southern army, and that if he prefers it a field of operation will be assigned him on the Pacific coast. The gentleman, whose loyalty was thus assailed, indignantly spurned the fortune that was only to be had at the price of treachery, and forthwith dispatched the letter to the Chief of the Pacific Military Department."

This is not a solitary fact. There are others within our knowledge tending to the same point. It is not necessary that we should state them. If "the opening of the Ball" on the "Pacific Coast," depended on the result of the recent election in California, it is possible it may be deferred for the present. But it should ever be recollected that Secessionists have no respect to the will of the people. Look at Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, and indeed, to the action of the Secessionists in all the States. If they can get possession of arms,—and manage to disarm the people,—they want no better opportunity to take the field in behalf of Secession. We look write these words with the view of unnecessarily exciting our people. But we have every evidence that we could be expected to have that the emissaries of Jeff Davis are among us, and that they will break down all law and order, all Government here, the moment they think the people are in their power. Gen Lane came here with the avowed purpose of placing Oregon upon the platform of the Secession States. He has given no evidence of a change in his determination. His secluded position favors his designs, and movements in the region round about his place of residence, show that he is not idle. We say to the friends of the Government and the Union "TAKE WARNING!"

Union Meeting at McMinnville.

Pursuant to call, a large and respectable number of citizens of Yamhill met at McMinnville on the 7th inst for the purpose of replacing the flag of our country which had been clandestinely torn down a day or two previous, by the hand of some dastardly traitor.

The Union loving men of McMinnville had procured a pole of very respectable dimensions,—from which now floats to the breeze the glorious ensign of the Republic—which does great credit to the patriotism of the ladies of McMinnville, who presented it. The audience then retired to the shade selected for the occasion, and organized, by selecting Hon John R. McBride as Chairman, and B. F. Giltner, Secretary. After the object of the meeting was expressed in a brief and pithy speech, Geo. L. Wood, Esq., made an eloquent and patriotic speech of nearly an hour in length, boldly vindicating the honor and integrity of the Government in its hour of peril, and denouncing its enemies in telling and bitter terms. G. W. Burnett was then called out and made a brief and telling speech. A military company was then organized. Resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting were then passed, and a vote of thanks tendered to the "Holdrige Band," who were present and discoursed stirring strains of martial music. The proceedings of the day passed off pleasantly and quietly, which speak well for the loyalty of the people of McMinnville and vicinity.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

LATEST PONY DESPATCH.

BROUGHT BY THE STEAMER SIERRA NEVADA

St. Joseph, Aug. 31.

Government is considering the propriety of organizing a National Detective Police. Several large cities have been represented in a conference on this subject. The plan is to have agents distributed throughout the country, forming a network of surveillance.

A wound from Beauregard's headquarters was received here, passed through our lines into Alexandria having about her person some 200 letters addressed to and implicating prominent citizens of Washington and Alexandria.

Foreign mails by the last steamer were received at the State Department. Advices from our Ministers show that the European governments appreciate the Bull Run disaster to its full extent. The Northern troops are given more credit for bravery and endurance than our own papers have claimed. Their front heavy works were considered by military men as giving the rebels so great an advantage, as to make it matter of wonder how raw recruits could be induced to assault them under such dread advantages. Our ministers are confident that no movement to recognize rebels as national will be made so long as our government maintains its forces in the rebel States. The feeling on the continent generally is that the North would be aroused by disaster to the army, and that defeat would prevent any arrangement with the rebels. Officials in the British government are impressed with the belief that the battle and the defeat would only prolong the contest without benefiting any thing.

Several persons have been arrested, among them are Mrs Greene, widow of the former Librarian and Translator of the State Department.

Mrs. Senator Gwin's trunk—ordered to go to West Point—was seized and examined. Plans of the fortifications at the Chain Bridge and on the other side of the Potomac, traced on paper by some clerk in the War Department, were found.

Dr. Manning was arrested, and other arrests will soon be made.

Washington City was thrown into excitement by a report that martial law would be declared immediately. The authorities have not decided to take such a step.

A Committee from Boston are endeavoring to persuade the President that he ought to change his constitutional advisers. It is stated that these gentlemen represented the sentiments of certain prominent monetary interests in Boston, who demand that the heads of the War and Navy Departments must come off, else they will not risk capital further. This matter has created considerable feeling.

The London Globe denies, by authority, the statement that Admiral Milne has reported that the blockade of the Southern ports is ineffectual. It says that no general report has been officially received.

Officers had seized six packages of the New York, Daily News at the American Express office in that city. The publishers, finding themselves excluded from the Post office, Adams's Express and Ross & Yancey's agencies, endeavored to employ the American Express, which they supposed was not well watched.

At Washington the Secessionists are generally dismayed by the late arrests. They think matters are growing serious to them.

It is stated that Government has refunded to Illinois 40 per cent of the expenditures of that State in fitting out volunteers, which gives the State $1,000,000.

The remains of Gen Lyon were embalmed at St. Louis and left there yesterday by Adams' Express, under military escort for the East.

It is reported that the English and French fleets on our coast are intended for service at Vera Cruz, intervention on Mexican affairs being the probable design of these Governments.

Richard Wallach, who was appointed Mayor of Washington in place of Henrit, is a strong Unionist.

Secretary Seward has gone to New York to arrange a new passport system.

The Union men of Kentucky are ready for whatever issue the Secessionists may force upon them.

Government has rented a building at Washington for the confinement of female prisoners.

The battle of Cross Lanes, near Summerville, on the 26th, proves to have been a bloody affair. Col Tyler's 7th Ohio was attacked on both flanks and in front at the same time while breakfasting. Our troops immediately formed in order of battle and fought gallantly. They saw little chance of success as the enemy was too powerful. Companies B, H and E suffered most severely, being in the hottest of the battle. They stood up bravely, fighting against fearful odds, and making dreadful slaughter in the enemy's ranks.

Our forces scattered after they had cut their way through, but soon formed again. They fired, but received no reply or put out by the enemy. The rebel force was 5,000 infantry and 1,000 cavalry, with 10 guns. Of ours 900 were engaged, 200 of which are missing. The rebel loss is fearful. The enemy's colors and two prisoners were captured.

The Secretary of War has ordered the stoppage of all telegraphic dispatches to points south of Kentucky.

The Charleston Mercury's correspondent says: "We are without the sympathy and friendship of any nation on earth. The only argument by which we can influence them is by necessities and fears." This correspondent says that Confederates suffered more killed and wounded than the Federals [at Bull's Run.] Complaints are made that advantage was not taken of the Federal flight at Manassas.

1,100 copies of the newspaper Daily were received at the American Express Co.

Albany, Aug. 28.—Mr. Russell of the London Times, denies that he was refused a pass from Gen Porter, and adds that he has a pass from him and Gen. Scott.

The Washington Republican expresses the belief that a battle across the Potomac would be avoided many days longer.

Russell, of the London Times, has returned from an expedition to our camps, reports the troops wonderfully improved within the last fortnight.

CITY.

Aground.—We are informed that the bark Jane A. Falkenberg was aground at Willow Bar in the Columbia River, when the Sierra Nevada passed yesterday.

There will be public exercises at the District School-house, this afternoon, commencing at three o'clock. The parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

Read the Laws.—We commenced yesterday the publication of the acts of the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress. These acts will give the reader a good idea of the legislation called forth by the great rebellion. Comment is unnecessary.

Arrival of the Sierra Nevada.—This steamer arrived at noon yesterday. The following is her memoranda and passenger list:

Memoranda.—The Oregon and California Steamship Co.'s steamer Sierra Nevada, E. Wakeman, Commander, from San Francisco Sept. 7, arrived at Portland at 12 M. Sept. 12th. The following is her Passenger list.—S. C. Bridges, T. Mayer, S. Waterman, D. Weinshank, L. White, W. Collins, J. M. Collins, W. H. Collins, W. M. Taylor, J. Agnell, T. S. Williams, P. A. Vickers, Mr. Merchant, Mr. Etheridge, H. Reiss, J. Wasen, B. F. Kendall, J. Levy, Maj. Haller, J. J. Westbrook and wife, Mrs. Herring, and 20 others.

Favors.—We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for a large file of papers by the steamer.

For Victoria.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sails this evening for Victoria.

California Election.

The Sierra Nevada brings San Francisco papers including the 7th. The returns from the election so far give Stanford (Rep.) 39,007 votes; Conness, (Union dem.) 19,783; McConnell, (Secession) 12,211. The estimated vote, based on the returns received, is thus given: Stanford, 55,481; Conness, 33,111; McConnell, 33,204—Union vote, 88,592; Disunion or Secession vote, 33,204. The San Francisco Mirror regards the result of this election as due to the "predominance of patriotism over party conventionalities."

The San Francisco Herald, of the 7th, says that it is highly probable the opposition have a majority in the State Senate.

Col. Wright was at the Dalles on the 11th. It is understood that he will order out two companies of Volunteer cavalry for three years. One company from Oregon and the other from Washington,—to be stationed in the upper country.

Overland emigrants are arriving in this city. They leave soon for the country. They look well.

Dr. A. G. Henry, Surveyor General of Washington Territory, left here several days since to assume his duties at Olympia.

The Portland Advertiser is very popular with the members of the Golden Circle at Sacramento.

B. F. Kendall, Esq., Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, arrived on the Sierra Nevada yesterday from San Francisco. He will leave on Monday for Olympia.

Bridgeport, (Conn.,) August 24th.—In clearing out the office of the Farmer last night, a mail bag was found filled with letters, etc., for secessionists in Alabama and Georgia, some of them expressing treason of home politicians.

Nobody is to suffer with RHEUMATISM or GOUT when every body knows that DR. ADOLPHUS' ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL is a sure cure, without fail.

For sale by SMITH & DAVIS, Agents, Portland, and by Druggists generally.
mar15d6m DR. H. ADOLPHUS, San Francisco.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters—A specific for dyspepsia, diarrhoea, dysentery, general debility, chills and fever, liver complaint, billious remittent fevers, and the pains and weaknesses which creep upon us in old age. For these ailments we quietly invited a trial and a verdict. The trial has come off, the verdict has been rendered, and the Bitters are to-day the most popular remedy, for the time they have been in existence, in this or any other country. It lives and continues to thrive and increase in popularity with marvelous rapidity, simply because the world wants it. It will have it, cannot do without it. The dyspeptic demands it as his only help, the victims of diarrhoea or dysentery believe in it, the billions sufferer dare not let one bottle run out before he gets another. Both sexes, all ages, all classes, regard it as the most wonderful invigorant ever compounded. Hence the enormous demand. Sold everywhere by Druggists, Liquor Dealers, and Grocers.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the insults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspond-ing, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26dawly
